ART CONTEST: LET'S SAVE TURTLES

I. Overview

- Organizers: People and Nature Reconciliation (PanNature), Asian Turtle Program of Indo-Myanmar Conservation (ATP/IMC), Humane Society International - Vietnam (HSI in Viet Nam)
- Objectives:
 - Share information and knowledge about turtle species, their role in the ecosystem and current threats to their existence.
 - Raise public awareness about turtle conservation and change people's attitudes and behaviours so that they join hands to protect turtle species from extinction together.
 - Promote and use public creativity to convey the message of turtle conservation, turtle protection and say "no" to illegal forms of "consumption" of turtles. Each individual will act as an ambassador to spread the message of protecting turtles.
- Contest theme: "let's save turtles". Contestants express their feelings and thoughts about the current status and threats to the survival of turtles; condemn illegal acts of buying, selling and "consuming" turtles; or express their proposals, dreams, aspirations, and calls for turtle conservation in Vietnam.
- Participants: Anyone who is currently living in Vietnam can join the contest
- Contest time:
 - Launch time: 21st June 2021
 - Submission time: 21st June 2021 – 11th July 2021 (GMT+7)
 - Voting time on Facebook (www.fb.com/www.thienhien.net): 15th to 20th July 2021 (GMT+7)
 - Date of result announcement: 25th July 2021
 - Presenting awards: Within 02 weeks of the date of result announcement

II. Major rules

1. Eligible artwork:

- Hand-painted artwork (A3 paper) or digital artwork (minimum size 3500x5000px, 300dpi resolution). Contestants can freely create content, messages, and ways of expressions as long as it meets the requirements and theme of the contest. Contestants can submit up to 3 pieces of artwork.
- Contestants are required to submit the name of the artwork and a short message or introduction of their work with a length of no more than 500 words (The contestant can introduce the idea of the painting, the message they want to convey, the story behind the artworks or whatever they want to express in their work).

2. How to submit your work:

- In the preliminary round, contestants are required to send photo files (for digital artworks) or high-resolution outdoor photos/clear colour scans, if they have not sent the original artworks, (for hand-painted artworks) in an email to baoverua@gmail.com. In the email, contestants are required to clearly write the title: [Full name of contestant]_ Lets save turtles. The following information should be mentioned in the letter: [Contestant's name] - [Year of birth] - [Name of entry] [Message or comment (if any)] - [Home address] - [Phone number of contestant or guardian]
- After passing the preliminary round, the artwork is selected to enter the final round of the contest where qualified artwork is posted on the Facebook page for the public to vote on. The Organizers will contact and request the authors' qualified artwork to submit their original paintings/artworks. It is mandatory for the finalists to send original paintings to the Organizers. Entries are placed in sealed envelopes and sent to the Centre for People and Nature, 24H2 Yen Hoa New Urban Area, Yen Hoa Ward, Cau Giay District, Hanoi.

Envelopes containing paintings must be enclosed with the following information:

[Contestant's name] - [Year of birth] - [Name of entry] - [Home address] - [Telephone number of entrant or guardian]

Submission time is calculated by postmark. Works will be selected to be used in the design of publications and displayed at relevant events hosted by the Organizers for non-profit media purposes to raise conservation awareness.

- The process of artwork selection and evaluation

Within 3-7 days after receiving the entries, the Organizers will send a notice to the contestants whose works are qualified, meeting the contest requirements. Eligible entries will then go through a preliminary round. If they pass the preliminary round, the entries will enter the final round of the contest and be posted on the Facebook page for the public to vote on. The Organizers will notify the entrant of the eligibility of their artwork; however, they have no liability to the entrant whose work is invalid or ineligible for selection based on the Organizers' assessment.

- Regarding the finalist entries posted on the Facebook page, contestants can share the post themselves on their personal page to call for people to vote for them, with the hashtag #Chungtaybaoverua #PanNature #HSLinVietNam #ATP (recommended to tag friends when sharing post). Entries will be scored based on the total interaction index of the work (interactions, comments and shares) of each entry on the Facebook page (excluding interactions on personal pages of the entrant or of the tagged friends).

Specific scoring is as follows:

1 like/haha/sad/angry = 05 points, 1 love/wow/care = 10 points

1 comment = 15 points

1 public share (with the hashtag #Chungtaybaoverua #PanNature #HSLinVietNam #ATP) = 20 points

Note: Public shares are counted only if they contain all hashtags and shared from <https://www.fb.com/www.thiennhien.net> with the voting artwork).

About the Asian Turtle Program of Indo-Myanmar Conservation

The Asian Turtle Program (ATP) was established in 1998, with the aim of establishing a safe and sustainable future for Asian turtles, and ensuring that no further turtle species become extinct in the region. The ATP activities include research, conservation, community communication, training, rescue, release, and policy advocacy. Since its formation, the ATP has concentrated its efforts on Vietnam's priority species including those which are critically endangered or endemic, and with conservation value, on a global scale. In 2015, the ATP was incorporated into Indo-Myanmar Conservation, a not-for-profit corporation registered in the United Kingdom to facilitate greater scope for the research and conservation of additional taxa.
